Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

1. Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. Claims 1-12 do not claim a tangible result. In addition, the claims do not claim an apparatus, method, article of manufacture or composition of matter.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

2. Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by the instant application's disclosed prior art (specifically figures 3 and 4).

Regarding claims 1-12, Figures 3 and 4 of the instant applications disclose identical spectral masks in an ADSL system. The PSD mask is represented by a plurality of break points and the plurality of break points includes approximately -97.5 decibel-milliwatts per Hertz at approximately 0 kilohertz. In addition, -90 dBm/Hz is approximately -97.5 dBm/Hz.
